COMMERCIAL INTELLIGENCE

SATURDAY EVENING, Nov. 26.

A FURTHER withdrawal of £100,000 from the Bank of England for the United States is reported in yesterday's London telegram, and to-day's message advises a decline in the New York exchange on London from dlrs. 4·78½ to ½ per £. Consols, however, remain unaltered at 100½, and there is no change in the Indian Loans, either Sterling or Rupee. French Rentes are ½ lower at 116.

In the General Produce markets Coffee and Cocoanut-oil are unchanged. Linseed is steady with an advance of 6d. per quarter in Calcutta, to arrive, whilst Bombay is 6d. lower. Bombay Wheat in Liverpool comes 2d. per cental lower.

Piece-goods in Manchester yesterday were quiet and easier, prices being all unchanged. The Liverpool Cotton market yesterday was quiet at unchanged prices, the sales being estimated at 8,000 bales; and to-day's report comes firm for Americans, with an advance of 1-16d., Surats steady and unaltered, sales 10,000 bales. In New York the price of ready Mid.-Uplands remains unaltered at 11 15-16 cents, but February shipment advanced yesterday from 12·23 to 12·39 cents, at which it is again quoted to-day. The improvement is of course accounted for by the comparatively short receipts at the ports, which constitute the leading influence at the moment to the exclusion of almost everything else. Should the receipts increase, however, the position has undoubted elements of weakness in the depression existing in Piece-goods, and the fact, that Spinners being largely supplied with Cotton, would be able to keep out of the market for some time if they saw any probability of prices giving way.

The American Crop figures to date give the following comparisons with the two previous seasons :—

	1881.	1880.	1879.
Week's Receipts	220,000	205,000	248,000
" Exports to U. K.	54,000	87,000	54,000
" " to Continent	56,000	28,000	61,000
Total Receipts since 1st Sept.	2,037,000	2,310,400	2,152,160
" Exports to U. K. "	615,000	779,600	781,000
" to Continent "	370,000	390,700	366,000
" Stock in the Ports	905,000	930,000	867,000
Saturday's Receipts	33,000	39,000	29,000

The total visible supply of cotton for all Europe on the 25th instant compares with the corresponding date of the two previous years as follows :—

	1881.	1880.	1879.
Total supply of all kinds	2,440,000	2,310,000	1,844,000
" " Surats	288,000	223,000	216,300

For the U. K. only the figures are :—

Stock in Liverpool	456,000	435,000	316,850
" London	39,000	41,000	54,930
*American Afloat	180,000	220,000	294,000
E. Indian "	37,000	17,000	42,000
	712,000	716,000	707,780
Price of Mid-Uplands	6½d.	6 11-16d.	6⅞d.
" Fair Dhollera	4¼d.	5d.	5¼d.
Difference	2d.	1 11-16d.	1⅝d.

EXCHANGE.—The recovery in the quotation for Bar Silver to 51½d. per oz. has confirmed the firmer tendency apparent in sterling at the close yesterday, and a partial recovery of 1-32d. has been established, at which the banks are to the full as willing sellers as buyers. The position indeed has more evidence of firmness than strength about it, and while we may count with considerable certainty on going little, if anything, lower than the present level, it is impossible to say that we may not see a material advance as the season wears on. We quote :—

Bank Bills on demand	Is. 7 31-32d.	per Rs.
Do. telegraphic	Is. 7 29-32d.	"
Do. 3 months' sight	Is. 8¼d.	"
Credits, 2 " "	Is. 8¼d.	"
Documents, 3 " "	Is. 8 9-32d.	"
France 3 " "	Fr. 130 to 1c.	"

On Calcutta there is no change.

GOVERNMENT PAPER has taken a firmer turn again, buyers having come out for Fours at Rs. 101¼. Fours-and-a-half, however, are unchanged at Rs. 110¼.

SHARES.—The tendency to improvement in Spinning and Weaving Companies is still manifested a general advance of Rs. 5 to Rs. 10 per share being shown in our list of quotations. Press Companies are generally steady, but Berars have receded Rs. 5, Colaba Press Rs. 25 and Fort Press Rs. 75 per share.

COTTON.—There has been very little actual business done to-day. Exporters have received no higher limits from home, whilst the New York advices have imparted increased firmness to sellers. An advance of Re. 1 to Rs. 2 per candy is being asked by up-country sellers, who can afford to show considerable firmness as yet, whilst there is no actual pressure of Cotton on the market; but as regards Omras this will not be the case for more than another week or two, as the yield both from the Berars and Khandeish promises to be one of the largest ever known.

SEEDS and WHEAT remain unaltered.

In FREIGHTS there has been rather more doing to-day. For Liverpool 38s. 9d. is now quoted and for the Northern Continental ports 43s. 9d. to 45s. is being asked. Two steamers are reported to have been chartered for January loading at 38s. 9d., U. K. or Continent.

Coals continue quiet, but steady at previous prices.

The Bombay Gazette

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 28, 1881.

THE Marquis of Hartington at Blackburn has been ridiculing the speech in which Lord Salisbury at Newcastle, six weeks ago, ridiculed a speech delivered by Mr. Gladstone at Leeds in which he spoke of "binding Afghanistan to us by the ties of affection," and "converting it into a moral barrier against the Russian advance." It is scarcely dignified for the eminent leaders of the great governing parties to make such a subject the theme for ridicule long drawn out. Afghanistan is no laughing matter, and though some think that the Russian bogie is, it would be well if even that, when spoken of by responsible statesmen, were treated in a serious spirit. Reuter does not inform us in what exact terms the Secretary of State for India made game of Lord Salisbury's views of the present phase of the Afghan question. Lord Salisbury in dealing with the Premier's speech, was as slashing and as irresponsible in his gibes and jeers as if he were writing anonymously in a comic paper. He spoke of the First Minister's "pulpit eloquence" leading him into the "perpetration of the rankest nonsense." The particular nonsense of which he most complained was the suggestion that the Afghan is guided by his affections, and that "the considerations which are true and just as applied to your civilized neighbours can safely be taken as a guide to policy on the frontiers which are threatened by barbarians." He averred that the Government policy was a policy of "abandoning bulwarks and neglecting precautions," while Russia is steadily advancing. This allegation has nothing jocular about it, and it is surprising to find it mixed up amongst the flouts and jeers of which Lord Salisbury, according to the authority of Lord Beaconsfield, was always prodigal. But surely it might be hoped that after the lapse of six weeks Lord Hartington, if he thought it necessary to deal with such an allegation at all, would seek to rebut it with a becoming gravity. But this, it would appear, is precisely what the noble Marquis has not thought fit to do. He has replied with ridicule to a charge to which it was ridiculous to reply at all, if it did not require serious refutation.

When speaking upon the situation in Ireland Lord Hartington appears to have followed the example of the Times in somewhat needlessly avowing that the condition of things in that country is calculated to inspire the greatest disappointment and dissatisfaction. It is difficult to see what is to be gained at the present moment by an avowal of this kind, conflicting as it does so strikingly with Mr. Gladstone's declaration a month ago that affairs in Ireland had been marvellously improved by the suppression of the Land League and the arrest o the agitators. Now we are told that outrages are rife, and the exercise of legal rights on property is both difficult and dangerous! It was predicted at the time that this would be the inevitable result of removing the Land League, which was mainly Irish, out of the way of the secret societies, which are mainly American in inspiration and objects. The Land League was fast becoming discredited amongst large bodies of the tenant-farmers themselves through the perversity of its utterances with regard to the Land Act; and if the Government had but given time to the Land Court to speak for itself by its first judgments, there is no reasonable doubt that the influence of the agitators would have fallen away as rapidly as it had grown. Now we are face to face with a new complication, and one that the language of Lord Hartington and the Times is calculated to aggravate by its effect upon the American centres from which the operations of the secret societies are directed and sustained.

WE recently dwelt upon some aspects of the large question of recruiting in reference to the Native Army of India, and we pointed out the great advantage possessed by Bengal in having such magnificent recruiting grounds as the Punjab and Nepaul, and the many districts of the Lower Himalayas, whose populations are hardy and warlike. We propose on the present occasion to deal with the recruits of the Bombay Army, and try and ascertain what truth there is in the statement that the once famous recruiting grounds of the Dekhan and Konkan no longer furnish good fighting men. It is of course a mere truism to say that during a long peace nations, like individuals, lose their aptitude for fighting. When a regiment has been a long time stationed in one cantonment, the men get lazy and out of condition, a natural consequence of the inactive life they lead. When the order to march comes, the rusult of this sort of life is soon apparent. For the first half dozen marches, numbers of men fall out and struggle from fatigue, or become footsore and have to get a lift on carts. But when the regiment has marched a hundred miles or so, all this sort of thing ceases. The men march along as if they did not know what it was to be tired, and with the joyous, springy tread that betokens health and energy. And in like manner the soldiers of a nation which enters upon a campaign after a long period of inaction and peace do not at once fall to the business of fighting with the same good-will and resolution as they show after a little campaigning. We make these remarks, because much of the adverse and unjust criticism subjected is based upon the fact that at Maiwand a force consisting principally of Bombay troops was opposed to an enemy outnumbering them by seven to one; was painfully mismanaged; and was finally swamped and overpowered by mere weight of numbers. On this slight foundation was raised that outcry against Bombay sepoys which was so loud and bitter while it lasted; and we say emphatically that to jump to a conclusion so sweeping upon premises so doubtful is manifestly absurd.

But we must now turn to the subject in its practical shape, and take account of the races of which the Bombay Army is principally composed. Until about thirty years ago the great bulk of the army of this presidency was composed of Mahrattas, Mahomedans of the Dekhan and Konkan, and low-caste men such as Purwarrees and Moochees. Of Hindustan men there was no great number, and Sikhs had not yet been enlisted into Bombay regiments. In regard to one particular class a great change has taken place during the last thirty years. We mean what are generally called "low-caste men,"—a term comprising a good many distinctive classes who may for present purposes be styled Purwarrees and Moochees. These men are most useful in a regiment, as they make good writers and are very handy in the regimental workshops. As a rule they are well behaved, fairly smart, and do not give trouble. But somehow or other, they seem to have fallen into disesteem with commanding officers, and are less and less recruited, while it appears to be the common opinion that they ought never to be promoted above the rank of havildar. And this is the more strange when we remember that formerly in many corps in this presidency more than half the native officers used to

In the evening there was a large garden-party at the Viceroy's camp, which was handsomely laid out with flowers and shrubs for the occasion.

The Viceroy gave a farewell dinner in the evening to over 80 guests. H. E. leaves to-night privately at 8 o'clock for Benares, where he opens the Prince of Wales's Hospital on the 30th.

SPEECH BY THE MARQUIS OF HARTINGTON.

LONDON, Nov. 27.

In a speech made by the Marquis of Hartington yesterday at Blackburn he ridiculed the remarks made by Lord Salisbury at Newcastle on the 18th of last month respecting the Afghan policy of the Government. His lordship said that the policy of the Government had been to make Afghanistan strong, free, and united; and in this they had been successful. He regretted that the situation in Ireland was still the cause of great anxiety, and calculated to inspire the greatest disappointment and dissatisfaction. Outrages were rife, and the exercise of legal rights in property both difficult and dangerous. Government would, however, continue to act with unswerving firmness and inexhaustible patience.

SIR DONALD STEWART does not return from Assam to Calcutta until the 2nd December.

H. M.'s TROOPSHIP SERAPIS, which sailed from Bombay on the 10th instant, and which was to have left Portsmouth on her second voyage to India this season on the 22nd December next, does not now leave England until the 10th of March, 1882: consequently there will be only two troopships instead of three to sail from Bombay in January, viz., the Malabar on the 17th and the Jumna on the 22nd.

A CORRESPONDENT telegraphs to us as follows:—"The merchants and inhabitants of Goolburga presented this evening an address to Mr. Adurjee Burjorjee, Customs Superintendent, on the occasion of his transfer to the Jalna district Mr. Adurjee replied to the address in an eloquent manner.

A TELEGRAM to the Madras Mail, dated Colombo, 25th November, states:—"General Sir Frederick and Lady Roberts arrived at Galle per Australia yesterday. Small-pox being on board, their landing was delayed for several hours. General Roberts lunched with the Governor at Queen's House, and dined at the Grand Oriental Hotel. The Australia left at midnight for Madras."

THE Mahsud final settlement promises now to be speedily effected. Yarik, the last of the ringleaders, whose son was given up as a hostage on his behalf, has surrendered, and the tribe has given up the Hindu they recently kidnapped from the Bannu district.

CAPTAIN J. B. T. NEWBURY and Captain J. F. Chisholm-Batten, of the Border Regiment, have resigned their commissions and are posted to the Army Pay Department. Captain Christie, 13th Hussars, has also resigned his combatant commission and is posted to the Army Pay Department. Captain Christie will go through the usual course of training at Calcutta.

WE are sorry to see that Mr. Justice Straight, of the Allahabad bench, has not yet recovered, as it is announced that in consequence of his illness "Mr. Justice Tyrrell will preside at the Criminal Sessions of the High Court on Monday, the 28th instant."

WE are glad to hear from Ajmere, through a Calcutta paper, that on the 24th inst. Mr. Primrose was considered to be progressing very satisfactorily towards a recovery from his illness.

THE Bombay Catholic Examiner publishes the following letter under the heading "A Conscientious Declaration":—

Sir,—Your readers may have seen in the Bombay papers that I have obtained a divorce from my wife, and some of them may be aware that I am a Catholic. I write this to explain that, although I have taken advantage of the law of the land in order to free myself legally from a lady who has left my protection, still, as a Catholic, I do not consider myself free from the marriage tie, or able to marry again during the lifetime of my present wife.—Yours, &c.,—WALTER SCOTT PEAT, Major, 1st Lancers.

IT is announced from Ootacamund that his Excellency the Viceroy has recently forwarded a subscription of Rs. 300 to the Adam Memorial Fund, expressing at the same time his entire approval of the form which it is proposed the memorial should take. The plans and estimates for the new market, including presumably the fountain which is to be raised therein in memory of Mr. Adam, were to have been laid before the Municipality on Saturday last.

NOTICING that the Government of Bombay has determined to organise an Agricultural Department, on the model recommended by the Famine Commission, and that Mr. E. C. Ozanne, C.S., will probably be appointed to preside over it, the Pioneer further states that in the Central Provinces, also, where Mr. Buck has just been touring, arrangements are in progress in a similar direction.

COLONEL SIR C. C. G. ROSS, K.C.B., B.S.C., who commanded the 14th Sikhs for years, and afterwards the District of Peshawur and the Presidency, is talked of, the Pioneer says, as likely to succeed to a divisional command in India before long.

COLONEL ALEXANDER, King's Dragoon Guards, it is reported, will vacate his command about the 8th December next, and proceed at once to England.

MRS. PHILLIPS, widow of the Rev. Mr. Phillips of the Orissa Mission, who began work in India in 1836 and died a year or two ago, has just returned from America, the Bombay Guardian says, to give her remaining days to the work of the Lord in the same field. Her daughter accompanies her as a medical missionary.

WE are overwhelmed with correspondence from wrathful students displeased with the papers set them during the examinations, and very anxious indeed to "cuss and discuss" the qualifications of their examiners. We print a few of these productions, giving preference of course to those which are not too long or too strong.

THE North West-Provinces crop and weather report for the week ended the 23rd inst. states that no rain had fallen, and irrigation continued. Rabi as yet is in fair condition generally, but prospects are precarious in parts. Prices are stationary. Fever is still very prevalent, but is abating in the western districts. There is cholera in Lucknow and Fyzabad. Cattle-disease is everywhere decreasing.

IN September last an Abkari inspector searched the house of Temoojee Framjee, a Europe-shop keeper at Sholapore, in which he found ten bottles of country-liquor without a pass from the Collector. Temoojee was charged before Mr. J. B. Alcock, first class magistrate, Sholapore, with being in possession of more than one gallon, or six bottles, of country-liquor at a time without permission. He said that of the whole quantity in his possession, only five bottles were his, while the other five were his wife's. The magistrate held that "his (accused's) wife's possession is clearly his possession," and remarked that the excuse put forward by the accused showed a wilful and deliberate intention on his part to evade the provisions of the Bombay Abkari Act. He was fined Rs. 25, with the alternative of a fortnight's simple imprisonment. He petitioned the High Court to send for the record and proceedings, and to quash the conviction; but Mr. Justice Kemball and Mr. Justice Pinhey, before whom the petition was heard last week, declined to interfere.

THE Bombay Guardian says:—There is trouble in the Educational camp just now. The annual examinations have come, and the long suspense of numerous candidates for matriculation draws to a close, when suddenly it is noised abroad that the examination papers were known to some of the candidates before the day of trial, thus vitiating the whole examination. We are not sure that positive proof has been obtained of the betrayal of secrecy, but the examiners themselves find reason to believe that the papers were divulged. It is possible that there may be among the compositors or proof-readers of the Government press persons of sufficient mnemonic power to enable them to reproduce the questions for the benefit of their friends, though we are far from intimating that any of them has been actually guilty of divulging them. No one could possibly be more lynx-eyed or scrupulously careful than the gentleman who has the charge of the Government Press. But it is easy to think of many ways in which the secret could leak out, unless the questions were printed just a few hours before the time of examination.

THE same paper is vexed that the Government should have had the Rig-Veda edited and published:—"Government have expended close upon £10,000 in publishing a book that—if it were offered to the public as a production of the present time—would be regarded by the majority of savants as a mass of unmitigated rubbish."

AS regards the alleged bungle in the matter of certain Matriculation papers, the Indian Spectator, having made independent inquiries, says that there was gross exaggeration in the report. However, there is no doubt that certain schoolmasters had obtained illicit knowledge of the questions proposed, and that their pupils had shared the knowledge. How did this happen? This may be explained by satisfactory answers to a few questions. 1. Were the questions sent to the printer just as they were drawn up by the examiners, or were they copied fair by others before passing on to the press? In the latter case, when, where, and by whom were they copied? 2. Where were, the papers printed; how long before the examination actually commenced; and were the compositors and readers such as they should have been? We should be sorry to seem to insinuate aught unpleasant against the innocent. All that we mean is that the University authorities must in future insist upon certain conditions; for instance, that examiners shall draw up questions in a legible hand, that these shall go direct through the Registrar or his confidential clerk to the printer, and that there shall be allowed as brief an interval as possible between the passing of the papers from the Registrar to the printer, also between their printing and the commencement of the examination.

THE total number of colleges and schools of all classes in Bengal increased during the year 1880-81 from 39,376 with 819,030 pupils to 47,507 with 928,489 pupils. There has been an increase of 446 pupils in colleges affiliated to the University; of 3,940 pupils in high English schools reading to the Entrance examination; of 2,536 pupils in middle English schools; of 5,022 pupils in lower vernacular schools; and of some 98,000 in primary schools. The progress made within the decade just ended may be gathered from the following statement. In 1781 there were 4,750 schools of all classes under inspection, with 186,000 pupils; in 1881 there were 47,500 schools, with 928,000 pupils. The great majority of these are elementary pathshalas, or village schools, which are brought under the Bengal system of registration and examination, to the number of 5,000 or 6,000 schools, with 80,000 to 100,000 pupils, every year.

A QUESTION having been mooted as to whether it would be a good thing to introduce into the Assam jails some of the manufacturing industries which are practised so extensively in the jails of Bengal, Major Williamson was deputed to study the working of the larger Bengal jails. That officer has now reported that none of the manufacturing operations which he saw in the Buxar, Bhagulpore, and Alipur jails could be successfully introduced into Assam. The reasons given are that it would take years to supply the Assam jails with such expensive machinery as is used at Buxar and elsewhere; and even if the machinery was purchased, the Bengal jails can supply all the clothing and blankets wanted by the police and jail population, both in Bengal and Assam. The Chief Commissioner has approved of Major Williamson's proposal to employ convicts, as far as possible, in extra-mural labour, especially on public works.

THE Journal of the Anjuman-i-Punjab observes:—There can be little doubt that the present winter will see a combination of the tribes to turn the Kashmir troops out of Gilgit. We understand that at the intercession of the Khan of Dir, Pahliwan, the former ruler of Yasin, who some time ago wanted to cut up Major Biddulph at Gilgit, has been allowed by Aman-ul-Mulk, the ruler of Chitral, under whose surveillance he has hitherto been, to resume his former post at Yasin, under the general suzerainty of Chitral. The restoration of Pahliwan, it is feared, will be followed by an attack on Gilgit, in which case the Maharaja's troops will find it difficult to hold their own, unassisted by our moral or military support, of neither of which there is any probability or the faintest necessity. The former attack of Pahliwan in the direction of Gilgit has achieved what is supposed to have been the object of its instigators, namely, the removal of the British Agency from Gilgit. We believe that the Government of India have a document in their hands, signed by the principal men of Gilgit, Sher Kila, and Gaokuch, throwing an unexpected light on the real instigators of that attack. Then, it will be remembered, Major Biddulph created a diversion in the rear of Pahliwan by causing Aman-ul-Mulk, his father-in-law, the ruler of Chitral, to attack Pahliwan and to take Yasin. This being successfully effected, Pahliwan was taken prisoner and was kept under surveillance at the Chitral Fort, from which he is now said to have been released. If ever "non-interference" was a golden maxim it is now. We are not bound to protect Gilgit, or to compel its people to remain under Kashmir rule. Our frontier, traced both by nature and the treaty of 1846, is the Indus to Bunji, and as long as that is not crossed, and it never will be crossed, it does not matter to us who is in occupation of Gilgit. If ever a man exerted himself successfully to promote the prestige of Kashmir, it was Major Biddulph. The coolness between him and the ruler of Hunza is entirely due to his declining to interfere in the matter of the Chaprot Fort, to which we alluded in a previous issue. There is reason to believe that Major Biddulph has been suspected and thwarted, but, whatever be the case, there is no reason why we should restore the Gilgit Agency, even as a summer Residency, and thus continue to be a thorn in the side, both of the Maharaja of Kashmir and of the tribes that want to cast off their allegiance to that feudatory.

THE Japan Herald reports that the long expected flying squadron made its appearance at Yokohama on the 21st October, some time in advance of the date that it was due there. Their Royal Highnesses Prince Albert Victor and Prince George of Wales landed on the 24th and proceeded to Tokio as guests of the Japanese Government.

THE North China Herald on November 1 published the following telegram from Yokohama:—"The movements of the Princes are uncertain. They left here on Tuesday on a cruise in Japanese waters, and are then supposed to be going home vid Hongkong and the Straits." "To judge from this," the paper remarks, "it would seem that the British Princes do not contemplate visiting Shanghai. At the same time an official telegram has also been received, stating that they would be here on the 22nd instant. What their movements are likely to be, therefore, is a little difficult to opine." The Straits Times of November 12 says:—"It is probable the visit of the Princes will be accelerated. They arrived at Yokohama on the 21st October, and left for China on the 1st November. A telegram has been received by H. E. the Governor from Admiral Willes, dated Shanghai, 11th instant, stating that the Detached Squadron was due at Hongkong on Christmas day, but fixing no date for their arrival at Singapore. As, however, their departure is said to have been accelerated from Yokohama in consequence of orders from home, it is possible the originally intended visit to Manila will be abandoned, and that they will be at Singapore early next month."

HIS HONOUR THE LIEUT.-GOVERNOR OF BENGAL has decided, should his proposal meet with the approval of the military authorities, to increase the pay of soldier's wives training for sick nurses and midwives in the Calcutta hospitals from fifteen to twenty rupees per mensem.

THE COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF ON THE SIND FRONTIER.

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.)

JACOBABAD, Nov. 20.

SINCE my last letter Jacobabad has been visited by no less a personage than the Commander-in-Chief of Bombay. Accompanied by the Adjutant-General, the Quartermaster-General, the Military Secretary, and others of his staff, his Excellency arrived by the 9 p. m. train on the 17th inst., when he was received on the platform by Colonel Malcolmson, C.B., 3rd Sind Horse, the Commandant of the station, and the rest of the officers. A guard of honour, consisting of a company eighty strong of the 3rd Beluchis, under command of a British officer, saluted him as he passed, and he was escorted to his camp by eighteen sowars of the 3rd Sind Horse.

The following day his Excellency held a levée of all European and native officers at 1 p. m., when each in turn was presented to him. Every one was received with a pleasant remark, and he did not fail to recognise those who had before had the honour of presentation.

On the 19th the troops, consisting of the depôts of the 1st and 2nd Sind Horse, the 3rd Sind Horse, and the 3rd Beluchis, were drawn up in line at 7-45 a. m. opposite the lines of the 1st Sind Horse, and were minutely inspected by his Excellency. After this they marched past, and the cavalry and infantry were in turn put through a few manœuvres. The 3rd Sind Horse, well mounted as they are, looked every inch ready for the field; and the 3rd Beluchis, dressed in the khakie-coloured cloth clothing of the old Jacob's Rifles, contrasted well with the more gaudy red peg-tops of their recruits. His Excellency was much pleased with these recruits, about 250 in number, and I certainly think it would be hard to enlist a better lot, and the 3rd Beluchis are to be envied in their possession. At 4-30 p. m. the same day his Excellency visited the stables of the 3rd Sind Horse and inspected the horses. Altogether the inspection apparently passed off very pleasantly, and there was a marked absence of those big D's which are often so freely scattered about on like occasions, both at home and abroad.

This morning most of his Excellency's staff sallied forth pigsticking, but although many more than the usual number of beaters were employed, only one burst, resulting in the escape of the pig, rewarded them. His Excellency leaves here to visit the outposts on Tuesday, and will probably remain for a day or two on his return.

The 2nd Sind Horse marched in yesterday morning, not sorry to get back even to Jacobabad, after so many months of roughing it. I fear some of the officers will find it no easy matter to get bungalows, for houses are very scarce now, owing to the number of railway people and other civilians now in camp.

Fever still continues, but is daily diminishing, although the hospitals are still pretty full.

The barracks of the 3rd Beluchis are to be rebuilt, and they have already commenced to pull the old ones down. This seems a contradiction of the report that Jacobabad is to be given up as an infantry station. If the report is true, and Hyderabad is also given up and Sibi substituted, the Beluch regiments will hardly benefit by the change, for unhealthy and hot as Jacobabad is, it still has trees and beauty, which Sibi cannot boast.

RETURN OF THE 14TH HUSSARS.

THE following instructions have been issued by the Quartermaster-General in connection with the march of the 14th Hussars from Bombay to Secunderabad:—

The head-quarters of the 14th Hussars, consisting of 15 officers, 190 men, and 221 horses, are expected to arrive at Bombay in the hired transport Calabria on the 3rd proximo. The detachment, after being completed by the addition of recruits and invalidments (regimental and hospital), will march for Secunderabad vid Tanna, Poona, and Sholapore. Such portion of the Poona field column carriage as may be available is to be sent from Bombay for employment by the Hussars as far as Sholapore, where it will be relieved under orders by the Quartermaster General, Madras. The native establishments accompanying the Hussars will also be relieved at Sholapore. Subsidiary arrangements will be made by the Brigadier-General Commanding Bombay District, in communication with the General Officer Commanding Hyderabad Subsidiary Force.

DR. DE JONGH'S LIGHT-BROWN COD LIVER OIL.—In Debility of Adults its efficacy is unequalled, Rowland Dalton, Esq., District Medical Officer at Bury, St. Edmund's, writes:—"The effects of Dr. de Jongh's Oil are sure and most remarkable, especially in that broken-down state of health and strength which usually precedes and favours tubercular deposit. It has certainly been the only means of saving my life on two occasions; and even now, when I feel 'out of condition,' I take it, and like it, unmixed with anything, as being the most agreeable way." Sold only in capsuled imperial half-pints, pints, and quarts, by all chemists, druggists and storekeepers. Sole consignees: Ansar, Harford and Co., 77, Strand, London.

DEESA RACES.

(FROM A SPORTING CORRESPONDENT.)

STEWARDS.—Brigr.-Genl. James, Col. Roome, Capt. Blaksley, Major West, Pol. Supt. Pahlunpore, Lieut. Col. Stack, Capt. Radcliffe. Lieut. Col. C. E. Stack, 3rd Q. O. Light Cavalry, Honorary Secretary.

Among the race meetings which, after having subsided for many years, seem to have been successfully revived, I am glad to enumerate that of Deesa. The force now here being less than it has ever been yet, it was feared that it would be hopeless to attempt anything beyond gymkhana sport, but the efforts of one or two enthusiastic sportsmen (well backed up by the experienced and energetic officer who undertook the onerous duties of secretary) served to set it going, and a well-drawn-out prospectus for three days was published. Unfortunately the time that elapsed between this and the commencement of the races was too limited to enable many owners from outside to make their arrangements to send horses; still with those that did come (among which were those of Capt. Humfrey, the Thakore of Palitana, the Dewan of Pahlunpore, and the Nawab of Radhunpore) and the local stables, there was capital sport shown each day, though the entries for many of the events were few. On the second day there was the District Cup for all horses bred in the district, the property of Native Chiefs and landholders, which was won by the Dewan of Radhunpore, who presented a purse to be run for at the meeting. On the next occasion I trust more Chiefs and Thakores will enter for it, as it is well known that there are many good horses about the surrounding country. Judging by the success which has attended the Deesa race meeting, so hurriedly got up this year, I think it highly probable that next year it will be a bumper one, and that it will bring in many stables and owners from outside, especially if worked by the same zealous and painstaking secretary as now.

Capt. Charles's ch. g Fandango, 10st. 9lb., Owner	0
Mr. Amrit Lall's ch. p Fireworks, 9st., Cassim	0

The start, with his usual good management, got the lot despatched on their journey at the first attempt, when Fireworks led out to the foot of the hill, when his place was taken by Sarola with Fandango in attendance. The Fawn close up. In this order they ran to the distance, when Trout shot out from the ruck, and coming away, won a good race from Sarola by a length, the same between second and third, ditto between third and fourth, showing pretty well the correctness of the handicap. It was a good performance for little Trout up the long and trying hill, with the weight up. Time 1m.

STRAIGHT.—For all horses. Weight for age and class raised 21 lbs. Added Rs. 175. Entrance Rs. 20. About 2 miles.

Mr. Geohegan's b w g Storm Wave, 13st. 4lb., Owner	1
Dr. MacDowall's b a h Helenus, 10st., carried 12st. 3lb., Owner	2
Capt. Radcliffe's g g a gal. Cæsar, 10st., Mr. Minchin	3

After some delay at the post owing to the unsteadiness of two of the competitors, the three got off well together. Helenus at once went to the front and took the first fence in grand style; next to him Storm Wave whipping in. No change took place in the procession till the last hurdle, when Storm Wave drew up, and it was at once apparent he had only been cantering, as he drew away at the finish by two lengths from Helenus, the latter whose jumping was the admiration of everyone, as also was the plucky and determined way in which he was ridden by his sporting owner, who declared two stone over weight at the scales. This being the case, of course he had no chance against Storm Wave, whose merits as a chaser are undeniable.

THE HANDICAP.—For all Arabs and C. B's. Added Rs. 175. Entrance, winners Rs. 20, losers Rs. 10. One mile.

Capt. Radcliffe's ch. c b h Ayoob Khan, 10st 10lb, Cassim	1

The Thakore of Palitana's g a h Fuluk, 9st 11lb, Ramjoo	3

Fuluk led for the first half-mile, Kolaib next, the big cheanut lying off. At the foot of the hill Fuluk fell back, leaving Kolaib with the lead, which he held upto the distance, where Ayoob Khan drew up to him, and gradually getting away, won a good race by two lengths. It was too dark for the time to be taken.

THE POLO STAKES.—For all polo ponies. ½ mile heats without dismounting. 13-2 to carry 12st 7lbs; 2lbs allowed for every ½ inch under. Added Rs. 45. Entrance Rs. 5.

Mr. Reid's Cr. p Café-au-lait, 10st. 12lb., Owner	1-1

Capt. Radcliffe's p Dun Brown, 12st., Owner	3-4
Capt. Humfrey's ch. p Ruby 12st. 10lb, Col. Stack	4-3

Both heats were won easily by Café-au-lait, who led from start to finish each time. Time not taken.

This race was run off on Monday afternoon, the 21st, as it was too late to admit of it coming off on the third day, Saturday.

After it there was a hurdle race sweepstake, which was won by Mr. Geohegan's b. w. g. The General, ridden by his owner, after which the entertainments (regimental and hospital), will march for Secunderabad vid Tanna, Poona, and Sholapore. Such portion of the Poona field column carriage as may be available is to be sent from Bombay for employment by the Hussars as far as Sholapore, where it will be relieved under orders by the Quartermaster General, Madras. CHOLERA AT POONA.—In the city on the 23rd inst, eight seizures and three deaths were reported, which, a local paper says, proves that cholera is decreasing in the city. Mr. R.M. Sayani occupied the chair. The chairman expressed his view at some length upon the generous offer of Mr. Mooljibhoy, and said that the managing committee of the library had unanimously recommended the acceptance of the offer, and had further recommended that the library should be called after the name of the donor. He moved the following resolution:—"That the offer of Mr. Mooljibhoy Jewraj should be accepted with thanks, and that the name of the library should be changed into Mooljibhoy Jewraj Khoja General Reading-room and Library." Mr. Sharif Salemahomed seconded the resolution, which was passed. The following gentlemen paid the life members of the library:—Messrs. Sayani, in moving a resolution that many more merchants of the Khoja community have expressed their desire to become life members. It is hoped that the library will be more prosperous under its new name, and that this being the only library amongst the whole Mahomedan community of Bombay, other Mahomedans such as

Johnson should have been born in Scotland in the age of John Knox, or in Arabia in the age of Mahomet. His mission is not in India, certainly not in Calcutta, where missionaries are expected to be as they generally are, gentlemen and men of education and common sense.—Indian Mirror.

The average of the corresponding week for the ten previous years was 288. The deaths are thus classified: 7 from small-pox, 3 from measles, 66 from fever, 29 from dysentery, 17 from diarrhœa, 2 from cholera, and 178 from other diseases. The population according to the last census being 370,552, the death-rate in the week under notice was at the rate of 39·5 per 1,000 per annum. The mean of the ten previous years was 35·0 per 1,000 per annum.

ECONOMY.—A correspondent writes:—Dame rumour states that His Excellency has already commenced to apply the shears of economy; for it would appear that the costly tiffins hitherto provided at the cost of Government for the members of Council, &c., on Council days are to be done away with, Mr. Grant Duff being of opinion that such persons are paid well enough to make arrangements for their own tiffins. Accordingly the Governor dined last Wednesday at the officers' mess, Fort St. George.—Times.

PENALTY FOR REFUSING A FARE.—Mr. Dainee Parsone, Deputy Registrar Government Secretariat, Public Works Department, Chepauk, charged Abdool Careen, hackney carriage-driver No. 2179, before Colonel Weldon, Chief Presidency Magistrate, Egmore Court, with refusing without sufficient reason to let this hackney carriage for hire on the 13th instant, and with demanding the sum of 8 annas, being 4 annas in excess of the fare for his carriage from Pursewalkum to his office at Chepauk. The complainant proved his case and accused denied the charge, but could produce no witnesses. His Worship convicted the accused and fined him Rs. 3, in default fifteen days' imprisonment.—Mail.

MR. GRANT DUFF AND THE TELEPHONE.—On Wednesday afternoon, after Council meeting, His Excellency the Governor proceeded to the Mess Room of the Royal Fusiliers in Fort St. George, to test practically the utility of the telephone as a means of communication. His Excellency was received by Major Keyser, Commanding the Fusiliers, and Mr. Henry Clay, the Telephone Company's Superintendent of Construction, with both of whom he cordially shook hands. Arrangements had been made beforehand at the office of Messrs. Arbuthnot and Co., where the Governor was received through the telephone with a hearty welcome. Major Keyser conducted the conversation from the Fort in "a most superior manner," the rich tones of his manly and musical voice reverberating along the wire in a style which at once proclaimed him to be no "lame duck" in the art of telephonic oratory. A Sergeant of the Fusilier's Band played some airs on the cornet at Messrs. Arbuthnot & Co.'s office, which were heard with excellent effect in the Mess Room and were appreciated by the Governor. By special request, Mr. J. W. Moscrop "whustled" a richly intoned melody through the telephone, which almost moved his Excellency to tears and drew big sobs from Major Keyser, who, in the depths of his emotion, was heard to murmur, in accents so well and sweetly known to the Madras play-going public, "Oh Sophia! Oh Sophia! Oh Sophia, ain't it bootiful! Oh Sophia, Oh!" Mr. Clay had some conversation with the Governor, in the course of which he explained to His excellency a great many points in connection with the invention. His Excellency appeared to be very highly pleased with what he had heard and witnessed, and in departing, thanked Major Keyser and Mr. Clay for their attention.—Times.

THE MADRAS HUNT.—Thursday, 24th Nov.—The Lattice Bridge was the meet this morning, and those who were not out missed two first rate runs. The field, however, was the largest this year. The hounds were moved off to the usual cover, and hit off a line almost immediately, but the scent was cold at first, and it was not for nearly twenty minutes that they got on good terms with their jack, but when they did, they stuck to him splendidly, pushing him through heavy cover, racing him over the bits of the open, and never once letting him get more than a few yards ahead of them and would have run into him in about ten minutes had it not been for the jungly country we went through. At last: when completely "jacked up," he skulked into some prickly pear, but was soon rattled out of it, and as the last chance took to the open again. Here he was viewed by Trinket, and almost immediately afterwards by Boisterous (one of the new hounds), and it ended in a coursing match in front of the whole field, the jack doubling like a hare, and doing his best to get to cover again, which he just succeeded in doing only, to be rolled over and die as a good jack should. Time 25 minutes, horses somewhat done up and decidedly scratched, and coats torn. While the jack was being broken up and his brush being presented to the lady on thegrey Arab, who justly deserved the coveted honor, for the plucky way in which she rode, we heard sounds as of hounds in full cry. It was evident, the pack had divided, and so it turned out, for, as the music came closer, the pack could stand it no longer and away they went to join the rest. The jack was nearly run into when the packs met, but luckily for him the hounds did not view him till he was some distance off, and had time to get back to the jungle. From this point he took us in a direct line back to the Lattice Bridge cover, giving us a fair hunting, though not fast, run of thirty minutes, and getting off with a whole skin at the end of it.—Mail.

N.-W. PROVINCES, PUNJAB, AND OUDH.

A BIG LAW SUIT.—A telegram has been received from the respondent's solicitor, intimating that the Privy Council has dismissed the appeal preferred by Nawab Azmut Ali of Kurnal against the decision of the Chief Court of the Punjab (Boulnois and Lindsay, J.J.), with costs. The case is one which attracted considerable attention while it was pending in the Courts of this Province, and the present judgment will henceforth constitute the leading decision on various intricate points connected with the Mahomedan Law of Inheritance. The property involved in the suit is estimated at twelve lakhs of rupees, and consists in the most part of Istemrri estates in the Karnal and Mozuffernugger Districts, which were granted by Lord Lake to the old Nawab of Karnal in 1803.—Civil and Military Gazette.

ARCHDEACON MATTHEW'S ILLNESS.—We have received from Simla some additional details of Archdeacon Matthew's illness. It appears that about the beginning of this month he frequently visited a soldier's wife at Jutogh who was suffering from erysipelas and who succumbed to that disease. At this time the Archdeacon was in such a bad state of health that he had to take a trip to Narkunda. Soon after his return he over-exerted himself at a school treat and caught a chill. On the 16th symptoms of erysipelas showed themselves, attacking the face; by the 19th the affection had extended to the throat and ears, and was accompanied by very high fever. From the 19th to the evening of the 21st the patient was in an extremely critical state and there appeared scarcely any hope of his recovery, but during Monday night and throughout Tuesday a change for the better set in, so much so that he insisted on seeing the clergyman who is carrying on the Chaplain's duty to discuss business matters. During Tuesday night he had a relapse and extreme exhaustion continued; this was still the existing condition when our informant wrote on Wednesday, and it is evident that the Archdeacon was by no means out of danger. He is attended by Dr. Owen with Dr. Marston as consulting physician, but Dr. Crawford and all the medical officers on this spot take the greatest interest in the case and nothing that science can do is being left untried. Mrs. Matthew, who was to have left for England on the 20th, has, as was to be expected, been indefatigable in nursing her husband, and is quite knocked up with fatigue and anxiety. Several ladies take turns to render what assistance is possible, and the bulletins issued by the doctors and posted at the approach to the parsonage are perused with the greatest anxiety by all classes of the residents.—Pioneer.

BURMAH.

A RISING IN PEGU.—When the last mail left Burmah, one of those ridiculous risings which every few years occur in the wilder parts of the province was reported to have commenced. An embryo prince or mindoung had appeared at a village about 40 miles from Pegu, where he was said to have collected a following, and to have commenced operations in the usual Burmese style by dacoity. The Extra Assistant Commissioner of Pegu, an old Tailne officer of good family and long Government service, together with a Burmah inspector of police, had started for the spot. On nearing it they seem to have thought it more judicious to send for reinforcements and await their arrival. It is somewhat strange that, though there are some D. P. W. officials, there are no English judicial or police officers in this important station. The European superintendent of police, whose headquarters are in Rangoon, started for the place when the first report of the outbreak reached Rangoon, and we believe it is intended to have a European assistant superintendent placed permanently at Pegu before long.—Statesman.
